

Eligible Types of Major Degrees

The NTAGGL Scholarship Program is for all persons who are seeking financial assistance for college tuition and expense. However, there is a special emphasis to low to moderate income families. Applicants who qualify under low to moderate income will be given a credit towards the overall grading system. The low to moderate income designation will be determined by verification from the college institution's financial aid office.

Purpose: The North Texas Association of Government Guaranteed Lenders (NTAGGL) recognizes the value of a quality education and the importance of financial literacy education and is proud to announce the availability of scholarship award opportunities provided through a partnership between NTAGGL and First Command Educational Foundation (FCEF). NTAGGL serves and supports the small business lending community of North Texas by partnering with government agencies and their affiliates to further provide training and networking opportunities through our associate members. NTAGGL believes strongly in personal financial literacy of our youth and our leaders. FCEF promotes and provides education as a foundation of a productive society through scholarships and financial literacy programs. Established in 2010 by NTAGGL in partnership with FCEF, this scholarship opportunity is open to students who are pursuing a business degree, a social science degree, a banking / finance degree or attending a two or four year college or university for a bachelors or graduate program.
